BAN AGAINST PREFIXES. The queerest ruling ever handed down in a Delaware tribunal was made yesterday by Judge Cochrane, in the Wilmington municipal court. He directed that witnesses should not refer to negroes as "Mr.," "Mrs." or "Miss." In order to enforce h s decision he fined Christopher Brooks, a negro, $5 and costs for contempt of court because he forgot himself after being warned and again called Sarah Archer, a negress, "Mrs. Archer."

Brooks was charged with breach of the peace and "Mrs. Archer" was the prosecuting witness.

Subsequently, another negro, Issae J. Henry, was the prosecuting witness against two white men, Walter Coyle and William Welden. Henry's mind was hezy regerding the decision of Judge Cochrane, he supposing the ban sgainet prefixes referred to all humanity, without regard to color

While giving his testimony he called one of the defendants "mister." Then, correcting himself, under fear of being fined for contempt, he bowed to the cout and said "Excuse me sab." The crowded courtroom broke out in a loud laugh, the judge and the court attaches being compelled to rap for order.

Thereafter the negro prosecutor referred to the accused as "Ocyle" and

As Judge Cochrane did not cite any precedent, the only appare: t reason for his ruling was that he disliked bearing negroes called "mister" and "mistress"

WOMAN SHOOTS AT NEGRO.

Yesterday morning about 11 o'clock, when Mrs. John W. Preston, whose ome is about two miles north of Washington, went up stairs to get an srticle of clothing for her baby, she found a negro in the room. As he started toward her he seized a revolver from a stelf and fired at him. The negro fell to the floor as if he were shot, and Mrs. Preston ran down stairs, shouting "Murder!" When she reached the yard she saw the negro jump from an upstairs window and run toward a strip of woods in the rear of the house. As he scaled a fence she fired another shot at him, which

An Electrical Man speed.
Mrs. Preston, who was slone with her baby, at once telephoned her husband, who is in business in Washington, and Mr. Preston was on the scene about an hour later. He organized a per y and raced the negro as far as Kensingt in, where all trace of him was lost. He where all trace of him was lost. dropped his hat when fired at in the Whether lighe to w reg your house or room and borrowed an old derby from a colored woman not far from the Preston

ANOTHER THEORY.

That Hazel Drew came to her death as the result of an automobile accident instead of being the victim of a foul and deliberate murder was one of the theories put forth in Troy, N Y, last night as a posible solution of the Teal pond mystery. After five days of careful investigation, in which many theories have been advanced, a motive for the morder is lacking Nothing has been learned that would warrant the authorities in making an arrest in connection with the crime. This being the case the accident theory is advanced

The macadam road between Troy and Averill Park is popular with automo-bilists. A reckless chauffeur, speeding slong at night, may have struck the girl with his car, causing her death. Rather than face the consequences, and knowing the country well, it would have been a comparatively easy matter to have taken the girl in the car up the lonely road toward Taborton and to have thrown her body into the mill To give color to a suicide theory the hat and gloves were left on the bank.

Over Thirty-five Years. In 1872 there was a great deal of distribues, dysentery and cholera in-fantum. It was at this time that Chamerlain's Colic, Cholers and Diarrhoes Remedy was first brought into use. It proved more successful than any other remedy or treatment, and has for thir yfive years maint sined that record. From a small beginning its sale and use bas extended to every part of the United States and to many foreign countries. Nine druggists out of ten will recommend it when their opinion is asked, although hey have other medicines that pay them a greater profit. It can always be depended upon, even in the most severe and dangerous cases. For sale by W. F. Oreighton & Co. and Riobard Gibson.
